FALL 1933

WHITE HALE
U. S. Plant Patent No. 31

The distribution of these new varieties is conducted under the direction of the New Jersey Peach Council, Inc., in cooperation with the New Jersey Agricultural Experiment Station

New Jersey Peach Council

The Horticultural News, official organ of the New Jersey State Horticultural Society, contains timely information regarding new varieties, as well as other subjects of direct interest to fruit and vegetable growers. If you do not receive this valuable horticultural publication, write to the secretary of the New Jersey State Horticultural Society, Arthur J. Farley, New Brunswick, New Jersey, and ask for a sample copy.

Five New Jersey Agricultural Experiment Station Peach Seedlings Offered to New Jersey Growers

The New Jersey Peach Council, Inc., has propagated a number of trees of several of the more promising peach seedlings originated by the New Jersey Agricultural Experiment Station. Since all of these seedlings have had only a limited test, their distribution is confined to commercial test orchards in New Jersey.

DESCRIPTION OF VARIETIES

N. J. No. 70

A medium to large, firm, yellow-fleshed freestone of high quality which closely follows Golden Jubilee in ripening. Hangs to the tree well after ripening. Requires more nitrogen than Belle of Georgia and should be set on good soil.

N. J. No. 73

A large, round, firm, yellow-fleshed freestone of high quality ripening a few days after N. J. No. 70, and Golden Jubilee. Hangs to the tree well when it ripens and is very attractive. Should be set at favorable elevations.

N. J. No. 87

A large, firm, attractive oval peach of high quality, ripening with Hiley. It is larger than Eclipse and a promising substitute for that variety in future plantings made in New Jersey.

N. J. No. 94

A large, oval, firm-fleshed peach of good quality, ripening immediately after N. J. No. 87, and just before Elberta. A promising variety to replace Belle of Georgia. Hardiness apparently about the same as Elberta.

White Hale (U. S. Plant Patent No. 31)

A round, large, firm, white-fleshed freestone ripening at the same season as J. H. Hale. Tree more vigorous and the flowers are fertile unlike the sterile J. H. Hale, which is one of its parents. Hardiness apparently same as Elberta. All propagating rights are retained by the New Jersey Agricultural Experiment Station in accordance with the Federal Plant Patent Law.

TREES FOR REPLANTING

A limited number of trees of N. J. No. 66, N. J. No. 71, and N. J. No. 83 are available for replanting. Trees of these varieties not needed as replants will be offered for sale at the same prices and under the same restrictions as N. J. Nos. 70, 73, 87, and 94.

All applications for trees should be sent to the New Jersey Peach Council, Inc., Box 278, Princeton, New Jersey. Applications approved by the Peach Council will be turned over to the Princeton Nurseries with instructions to fill the order and make delivery as specified on the application blank. A deposit equal to 10 per cent of the total cost of the trees is required with each order and the balance before delivery. Orders will be filled in accordance with the date they are received.
